I am pleased to recommend Washington Media Services to the American Legion of Washington. In 2007 and 2008, the City of Yelm hired Washington Media Services to develop "State of the City" informational mail pieces. I have worked directly with Joyce Willms, President and owner of Washington Media Services (WMS), Adriane Wolfe, Creative Director and their design team on the consulting, development, design, copywriting, printing and mailing of these pieces. Their services and creativity are superior and we have been absolutely delighted with the quality of work they have produced for us.

The informational pieces help city leaders communicate more directly and efficiently with our residents on important issues of the day, the value for our community was extremely high, and the cost remained affordable.

Through the years, Washington Media Services has kept to our schedule and stayed within the budget on their projects for our city. I am pleased to recommend them and continue our creative services partnership.

Sincerely,
